the national education finance academy has once again convened university faculty members state level administrators officials from state level chapters of the association of school business officials and others to provide a single volume reference of school funding mechanisms for each of the states the district of columbia indian country and the us territories this volume supplements the annual state of the state profiles produced by the national education finance academy so that educators policymakers and researchers can have access to accurate and concise information on how k12 education functions are supported across multiple jurisdictions in addition each profile addresses state level efforts to provide education funding to support schools during the covid 19 pandemic the second edition expands upon groundbreaking work in the first edition which for the first time reported comprehensively on the multiple jurisdictions and mechanisms impacting funding for native american students by also reporting on policies and funding mechanisms for public schools in us territories in the goslings a study of the american schools upton sinclair offers a rigorous critique of the education system in the united states underscoring the insidious influence of corporate interests on the structure and objectives of american schooling writing with the analytical precision and fervent prose that mark his renowned literary style sinclair s work situates itself in a broader social commentary on american capitalism and its pervasive impact on societal institutions including education his methodical dissection of curricula and political maneuvers within the education sector reveals a system more attuned to preserving corporate hegemony than nurturing the intellect and welfare of children sinclair s exposé responds to dr tildsley s 1922 controversial assertion serving as both a factual account and an impassioned call for reform upton sinclair a pulitzer prize winning author and muckraker is celebrated for his commitment to social justice and his novels that reveal the struggles of the working class against corporate powers sinclair s personal dedication to these issues was not merely academic he ran for public office and was often at the forefront of political activism this background imbues the goslings with a sense of authenticity and urgency as he channels his own experiences and observations into a compelling argument against the commodification of american education the goslings is essential reading for educators sociologists and historians alike it offers a timeless reflection on the purposes of education and a provocative examination of how society s most integral institutions can be co opted by powerful entities readers seeking an in depth understanding of the historical and ongoing challenges faced by the american education system will find sinclair s thorough analysis and eloquent advocacy both enlightening and galvanizing the book stands as a testament to the enduring need for vigilance and reform in educational policymaking in this informative volume one of america s most esteemed historians of education offers a vibrant history of american education in the last century drawing on an array of sources graham offers an insightful look at what the public has sought from its educational institutions what educators have delivered and what remains to be done drawing on discussions of the creative economy the network economy and the green economy rethinking us education policy critiques educational policies authored by the obama administration and considers the need for a new educational policy framework that is better adapted to an era of accelerating innovation schools under surveillance gathers together some of the very best researchers studying surveillance and discipline in contemporary public schools surveillance is not simply about monitoring or tracking individuals and their data it is about the structuring of power relations through human technical or hybrid control mechanisms essays cover a broad range of topics including police and military recruiters on campus testing and accountability regimes such as no child left behind and efforts by students and teachers to circumvent the most egregious forms of surveillance in public education each contributor is committed to the continued critique of the disparity and inequality in the use of surveillance to target and sort students along lines of race class and gender academies are funded directly by central government directly accountable to the department for education and outside local authority control they have greater financial freedoms than maintained schools by september 2012 the number of open academies had increased tenfold from 203 to 2 309 academies are the department s chosen vehicle for school reform but increasing schools autonomy and removing them from local authority control gives the department responsibility for ensuring value for money the department has incurred significant costs from the complex and inefficient system it has used for funding the academies programme and its oversight of academies has had to play catch up with the rapid growth in academy numbers in the two years from april 2010 to march 2012 the department spent 8 3 billion on academies 1 billion of this was an additional cost to the department not originally budgeted for this purpose some of which was not recovered from local authorities the department must improve the efficiency of its funding mechanisms and stop the growth in other costs furthermore the department has yet to establish effective school level financial accountability for academies operating within chains what will determine whether the department ultimately achieves value for money is academies impact on educational performance relative to the investment from the taxpayer if the department is to be held properly to account for its spending on academies it must insist that every academy trust provides it with data showing school level expenditure including per pupil costs and with a level of detail comparable to that available for maintained schools
